Dear STAT

Thank you for your letter of 13 April in which you recommended three candidates- STAT for maintaining and enhancing the quality STAT of the Military-Economic Advisory Panel. I believe these are good choices and will be considering them along with others who have come to my attention through consultation with members of my staff.

Your continued interest in the Panel will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM: Douglas J. MacEachin
Director of Soviet Analysis

SUBJECT: Candidates for Appointment to the Military-Economic Advisory Panel

REFERENCE: Letter Dated 13 April 1984 from [redacted] STAT
Recommending Three Candidates

1. Action Required. Paragraph 4 recommends that you review the list of candidates as set forth in paragraph 3 for possible appointment to the Military-Economic Advisory Panel (MEAP) and make the selections that you judge to be appropriate. There are three openings at this time and I have listed six possible candidates, including the three recommended by [redacted] STAT
[redacted] in the reference letter. Attached (TAB A) are some STAT biographic details on each of the six candidates.

2. Background. As discussed during your 21 March meeting with the chairman and several members of the Panel, consideration should be given to appointing at least one qualified candidate to serve on the Panel. Although the MEAP charter calls for a chairman and as many as eight members, the Panel is three members short of full strength. [redacted] contacted his choices and has STAT ascertained their willingness to serve if asked. SOVA also has conducted a search for replacements and has narrowed its consideration to three additional choices.

3. I believe that the following six individuals are qualified for membership on the MEAP but have listed them in two categories in order of my preference:

4. Recommendation. I recommend that you review the list of candidates for appointment to the Military-Economic Advisory Panel and select one or more to be invited to serve. Letters extending the invitations will be drafted for your signature when your choices are known. Again, TAB A contains biographic details for each of the six candidates.
